Peters' Plan Would Offer Rooms to Help Industries Get Start.

DIRECTORS WILL INVESTIGATE PLAN

Middletown Director Will Speak Here During Civic Week in March.

A new plan to arttract new industries to Salem, and to hold them after they once are here, was suggested to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce by President E. M. Peters at the directors meetin Wodnesday afternoon at the Memorial building. President Peters' plan embodies a suggested "power building," similar to buildings under private and public control in a number of cities. The building here, the president said, would probably have to be erected by private capital, and rented to

In this building would be a number of varied sized rooms, for very small and larger manufacturing companies. Power to run machines used would be furnished at a low rate. The idea is to have a new company come here and give it a chance to build up a business in one of these rooms of the 'power building" at a fair rental, and then eventually, when the companies grow, and get beyond their first quarters, their business would warrant the erection of their own buildings here.

President Peters believes that by this plan small concerns will be able to jet a start here, and not become discouraged and move to another city where better quarters than are now available in Salem are given

Will Investigate P'an To investigate such a suggested plan, the president will name a comand this committee will report back at the next directors meeting, getting all information possible for the directors to consider. Such a project, it is said, might be

WORKING FOR THE CITY

The rather pointed remarks of Councilmen Kaley and Adler with reference to city officials' working for the state instead of the city were timely, if such a condition exists, and since those who might have refuted the charges failed to do so, there is a growing suspicion that the councilmen know what they were talkin about. The charges, of course, related to liquor law enforcement in Salem, some phases of which have been quite noticeable within recent weeks. Arrests in these cases have been made by the same officers who instead of calling upon the other members of the force for assistance, have called in state agents. The result has been that these have been made state cases, through which the state shares with the city in fines assessed and the police and court collect fees. In other words, the work of law enforcement, so far as it pertains to the liquor traffic, has become somewnat commercialized with certain officials profiting and city losing 50 per cent of the fines. None of these cases have been so complicated as to require the a sistance of state agents, and no great progress in breaking up bootlegging has been made in declarin; them state cases.

Fee-collection is a bad practice in any couff. for it undermines the in tent and purpose of law enforcement Liquor cases brought under state charges offer the greatest induce ment to the police officer who is seeking fees instead of working fath fully at his job of enforcing all laws In Salem there is little excuse for this practice. Salaries of police offi cers, the chief of police and the mayor have been increased and the result should be increased vigilance for the best interests of the city The new city councilmen have done well to bring this situation to the at

Told Operation Was Only Hope, E A. Murray Recovers Health by Taking Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup.

There's no doubt about it, Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup saved me from the operating table and now I wouldn't be without this wonderful remedy for anything," is the remarkable statement made recently by E. A. Murray of Clinton.

There was an awful pain in my side that worried me a whole lot, and at times it was so exeruciating that I could hardly stand it. I was told I had appendicitis and would have to be operated on.

"I was sick, off and on, for about a year, and it looked like, I would just have to go to the hospital and go un-der the knife, but before deciding to do so I thought I would take thing to build me up a little so I could stand the operation.

'I was advised to take Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup and got a bottle. Soon after starting on it I felt so much better in every way that I just kept it up till I had taken four bottles, and to my great sur-prise and joy! found that my trouble was clean gone and my health great ly improved. I am now in first class condition and owe it all to this won-derful remedy of Dr. Thacker."

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is sold by leading drungists. In Salem it is being featured by The J. H. Lease Drug Co. Fleding's drug store, Bolter and French. Adv

Some years later, in 1823, a Kentsh farmer, Francis Smith, who was nterested in marine engineering, constructed a model boat propelled by a erew driven with a spring. The sac ess of this led to further experiments on a pond in one of his fields:

Experts became interested in his ineetigations, and in 1836 he built a ten-ton vessel to the design of his model. This had satisfactory trials on the Paddington canal and the Thames, but the inventor was not satisfied. He put to sea in her, and de spite rough weather his craft behaved

A year later the admiralty agreed to foster the invention if he could make a larger vessel that would travel five miles an hour on the Thames; and in 1838 he built the Archimedes, a 237ton boat of 90 horse power, which he aunched at Millwall. To the astonshment of the critics this boat reached a speed of nearly ten miles an hour. and in the two years that followed nearly one hundred similar boats were

Bread a Staple Food Throughout the Ages

Bread is the name given to the staple food product prepared by the baking of flour. In old English the word was written, as we write it oread, and it is common in various forms to many Tentonic languages. as "brat" in Germany, "brod" in Dutch, and "brot" in Swedish and Danish. It is probably connected with he root of "to break," for its early bits" of bread, which in Twelfth century began to be called loaf, while bread became the genuine name of this kind of food.

Bread-making, or at any rate the preparation of cakes from flour or parched grain by means of heat, is one of the most ancient of human arts. The charred remains of cakes made from coarsely ground grain have been found in the Swiss lake-dwellings that date back to the Stone age. The cakes were made of different kinds of grain, barley and one-grained wheat being among the ingredients. This brend was made from grain crushed between some hard surfaces, and in hese take-dwellings many roundshaped stones have been found, which were evidently used for pounding or rushing grain against the surface, nore or less concave, of another stone.

TILMA BANKY

According to reports from Paris, Rudolph Valentino went through an experience which sounds just like a movie plot when Baron Imre Lukatz, Budapest millionaire, swung an angry right at the movie star. Rudy ducked and knocked the Baron cold with a right hook. The Baron, in love with Vilma Banky, was jealous of Rudy's love-making with the Hungarian beauty in a film. He challenged the actor to a duel, but it was settled amicably. Vilma is shown in the hen winter's snow is falling outside—and the wind roars through the trees—when the friendly logs blaze up in the fireplace -have a Camel!

No other cigarette in the world is like Camels. Camels contain the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The Camel blend is the triumph of expert blenders. Even the Camel cigarette paper is the finest-made especially in France. Into this one brand of cigarettes is concentrated the experience and skill of the largest tobacco organization in the world.

WHEN it's a winter night and the day that was busy is done. And outside the snow is driving through the trees before the wind. When, inside, the crackling logs catch fire and burst into flames above the hearth-have a Camel!

For Camel is the tried and trusted friend of millions of experienced smokers. Whether your returning steps bring you home tired or jubilant, no sweeter, more mellow fragrance ever came to you from a cigarette. There's not a cigaretty after-taste, not a tired taste in a whole county full of Camels. Only mild and mellow flavor, deep-down contentment in your home or any home where Camels are lighted.

So this night, before your roaring logs of oak or hickory-have a Camel. Open up the famous package of Camels and know the fragrance, the contentment that brings happiness to millions. Put a Camel between you and a light and taste the mellowest, most delectable blend ever made into a cigarette.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

American Millions He'p to Rebuild Famous French Cathedral City.

Paris, Jan. 21.—Wanted—inhabitants for the city of Rheims. Rebuilt under the direction of Marquis de Polignac with the aid of Rockefeller's millions, the celebrated city destroyed during the war, can now shelter 115,000 people. Today there are not more than 80,000.

Rheims is for France what Moscow was for old Russia, the Holy City, a sacred spot, the city of Saint Remi and Clovis, of Jeanne d'Arc and of Charles VII. With its splendid cathedral of before the war, Rheims acquired the reputation of the first city of art in France. France Helps Pay

First aid was given her for its reconstruction. Nowhere was the response so ready. The state promised to allot 25,000,000 francs per year for rebuilding the city destroyed by the Germans. But only a small sum has been paid up to date and great enterprises which have been undertaken will soon be compelled to shut down.

"The situation has really become dramatic," declares the Marquis de Polignac. "The work under construc tion will not be paid for before seven or eight months, without doubt and under these conditions, it cannot continue. Joined to this reconstruction crisis is an internal economic one When the buildings now going up are finally finished Rheims will need 40,000 more inhabitants. Already 1,000 apartments are ready to rent, beautiful and comfortable ones, of fered at-ridiculous prices. How long will they remain empty?

"Twice ruined, the proprietors of these unoccupied houses, after having much suffered during the war, are now lerning that peace time also has its troubles and trials. They are now compelled to pay heavy taxes and upkeep expenses on empty buildings which are not bringing them a penny.

Big Industries Pre-war Rh ms had several large and important industries, especially those of champagne and wool. The first is still important for the vines are there and in good condition. The wool has been burned. New factories should be set up and everything be done to attract more people to the city which is one of the cleanest and healthiest in all of France. Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War, is known throughout the world for his not-able service to his country in President

THE use of Thor Cylinder Washers in America's best homes is a tribute to Thor quality.

Thor has made a million better homes. It banishes washday discomforts-for the clothes are on the lines at ten, and washday is over. It is promoting health by saving labor and by doing the laundry under sanitary home conditions.

The Thor is shaft driven, like an automobile. It uses no belt. It is built to last a lifetime. Thor washes with the process used by dry cleaners, because it cleans perfectly with no wear.

A Thor costs no more in the first placeand is cheapest in the end. Sold on small monthly payments you'll never miss.
